Dear Mr. Newman:

My thanks to Mr. Colin Bruce II for putting me in touch with you.

I have in my possession a $7.00 bill "...issued at Baltimore according to a resolution of Congress passed February 26, 1777...."

My mother told me she had seen it in her family "all of her life." She had no other recollection as to its origin. It is safe to say the bill has served as a bookmark in my family for over 100 years. Mother was born in 1884.

Out of curiosity I went to the local library to see if I could find it cataloged - without success. I did find your name as prominently outstanding as authority on such objects; so I am glad to be able to query you as to its interest, significance, or value.

Sincerely,

Karel S. Burleigh

I enclose a copy of two pages from my book The Early Paper Money of America and hope this will answer your inquiry.
